A favorite destination for the famous and not-so-famous, the village of Skaneateles and the surrounding Finger Lakes Region offer travelers a quiet respite from the hustle and bustle of the modern world. A peaceful fountain is the focal point of our own courtyard park. It's the perfect spot for enjoying a good book or a good conversation. Spend the day exploring one of the many restaurants, boutiques and antique shops in our picturesque village. Take a leisurely drive to one of many famous Finger Lakes wineries, stopping to enjoy the scenic lakes and countryside vistas along the way. Tour a nearby art gallery or museum. Summertime sizzles with the Skaneateles Festival . . . chamber music played under the stars all during the month of August. Travel back in time every weekend between Thanksgiving and Christmas at Skaneateles's Dickens' Christmas. Whatever the season or reason, there's sure to be a festival or event close by.

The Village Inn of Skaneateles

Quiet Comfort... in the European Tradition

Welcome...

When you're looking for a quiet getaway with all the charm of a quaint European hotel, you'll find it at the Village Inn of Skaneateles. Nestled in the heart of the Historic District, the Village Inn is newly restored to its original beauty. Four unique guest rooms, decorated by world-renowned Stickley, Audi & Company, offer travelers a quiet, private atmosphere to relax, refresh and recharge.

Relax

After dining at one of our famous local restaurants, you'll return to your own private haven. Relax with a glass of wine in front of a cozy fire. Enjoy a long soak in a whirlpool bath. Then, drift off to sleep amid the luxury of soft sheets and plump pillows on a deluxe mattress. Our attention to detail is what sets us apart from the rest.

Awaken to the aroma of freshly baked pastries, served alongside fresh fruit, juice and coffee in our second floor Morning Room. Or enjoy a leisurely complimentary continental breakfast on the porch of the Sherwood Inn, just around the corner.
